

MICHAEL GOODE FOR CUCA SECRETARY MICHAELMAS 2011

Experience

I have been active in Conservative politics since I joined the party at fifteen. Over this time, I gained experience of campaigning through helping PPC Maria Hutching contest the Eastleigh constituency (2008-2010), attended Conference and submitted work to Conservative blogs. In Eastleigh, I actively helped to run the club, formulate local policy and respond to challenges for other organisation. I have thoroughly enjoyed my time on CUCA's committee and helped in the recent AV referendum.

Why I am running

At its most basic level, I feel that CUCA must strive to not only continue its admirable tradition of hosting splendid events but should also aim to convey a approachable image. CUCA is a brilliant organisation but is failing to failing to utilise it's capacity. CUCA can gain more members and play a larger role in the University's debates without sacrificing its superb traditions and delightful events.

My plan for CUCA

I thoroughly enjoyed this terms "Thinking and Drinking" and would push for this event's continuation. I believe that it is vital for CUCA to be able to host discussions on topical issues both to gauge the opinion of its members but also to help formulate CUCA's general stance when challenged by other organisations. I would also strengthen CUCA's coverage in the student papers in order to present a Conservative stance to the largely left-leaning coverage of the news. On the ground, I will seek to utilise my good relationship with our Campaigns Officer to spread CUCA's publication.

Membership and funding

I am sure we all know someone who would fit in well at CUCA. I want to utilise the straight-thinking Conservative nature of many of Cambridge's students by hosting more events with a low or no entrance fee. To pay for this I support efforts for CUCA to obtain sponsorship and seek patrons.
